

Raising awareness and aspirations during a global pandemic: inspiring the next generation

Madeline Howard

Madeline Howard

Socio-technical Engagement Manager, Cygenta

Director of Cyber Cheltenham, CyNam

CyberFirst Ambassador, UK National Cyber Security Centre

A look back at 2019

‘Diversity in perspectives, leadership and experiences is good for cyber. The wider variety of people and experience we have defending our systems, the better chances of keeping the UK safe’ Evie, age 13

Virtualising the event

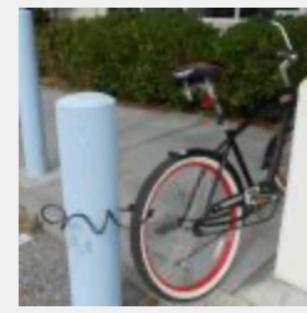

OSINT

Paul is talking about how hackers use your information from the internet, social media & elsewhere to create cyber attacks.

LIVE
1300 – 1330
BT

Book via Eventbrite

Social Media & Social Engineering

Chantal Cranny of the Home Office Digital Data and Technology team talks to us about social media and social engineering.

Coming soon

Popstars and Passwords

Madeline Howard of Cygenta explains how to create a memorable password using your favourite popstars!

Watch on YouTube

Transcript

Eavesdropping and the importance of encryption

Join Nicole, of Illuminate Technologies, on a dive into how eavesdropping is done in the 21st century – and how we can protect against it!

Coming soon

The human firewall

Marina West, of KPMG, tells us more about the human factors in staying secure online.

Coming soon

Python Coding Challenge

Dave Mound of Cygenta needs your help to break up the criminal underworld by using your coding skills!

Watch on YouTube

Worksheet

How can supporting young people benefit your awareness raising?

COMMUNITY

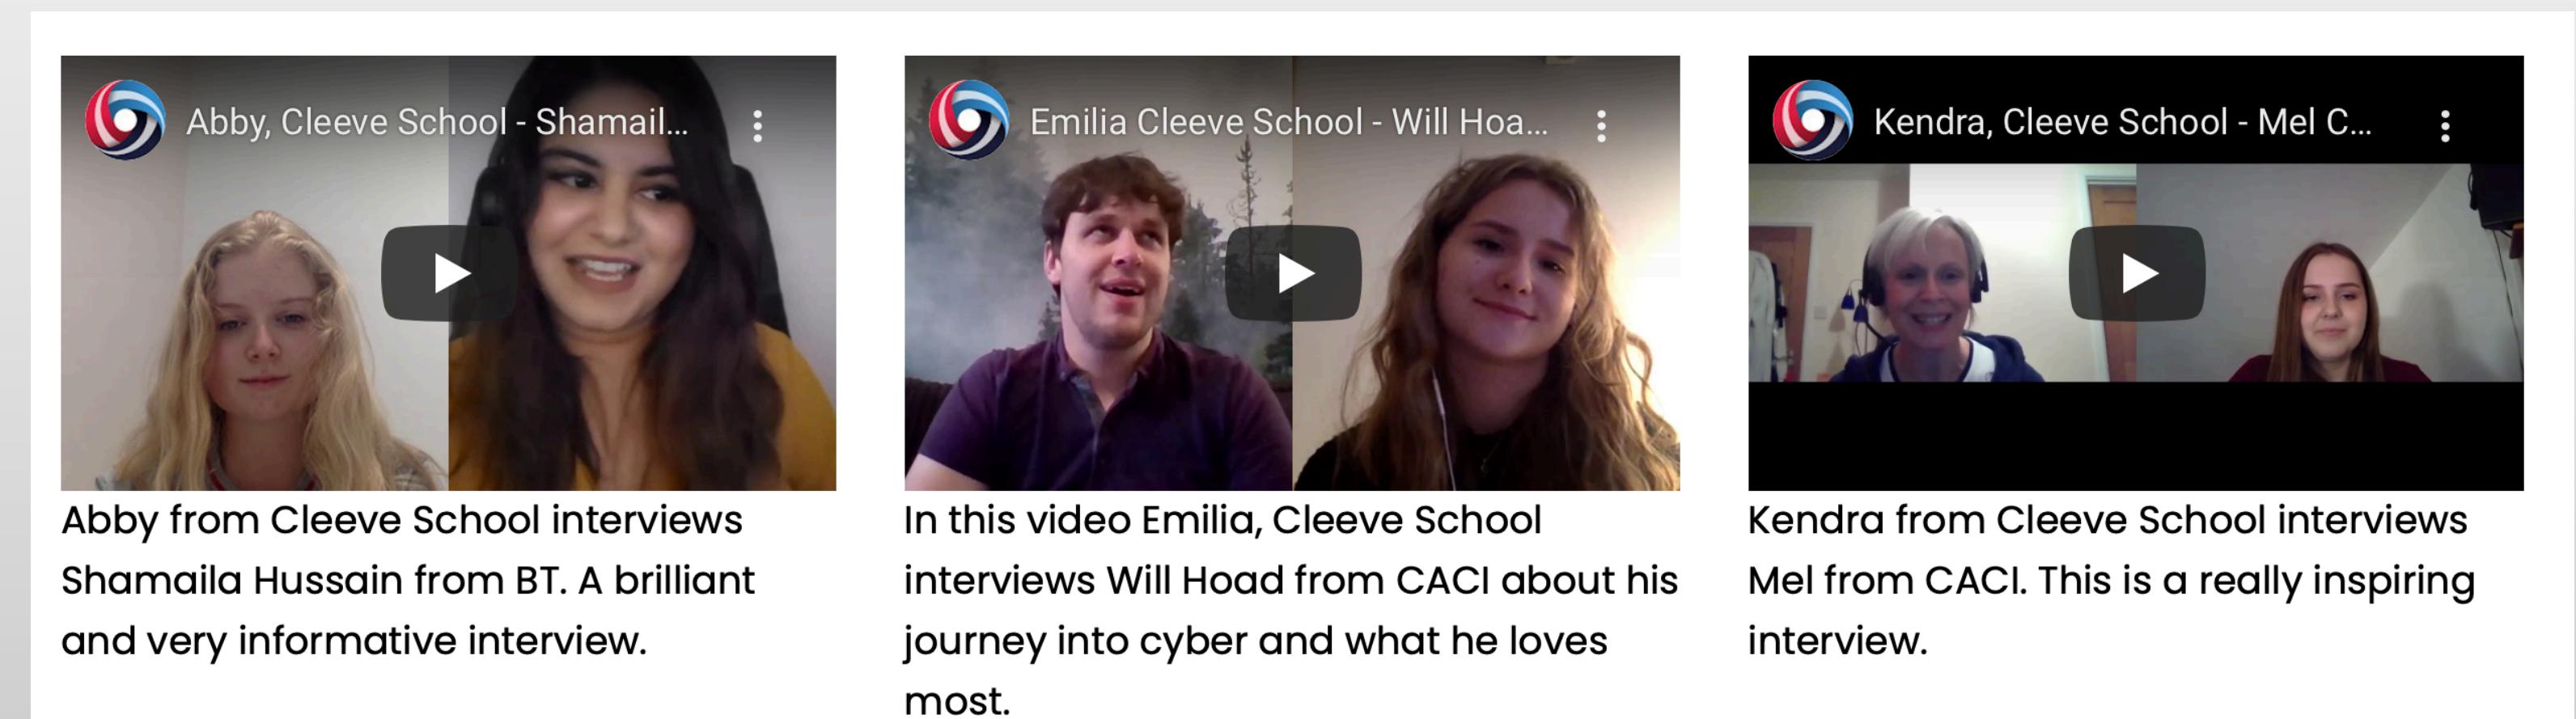

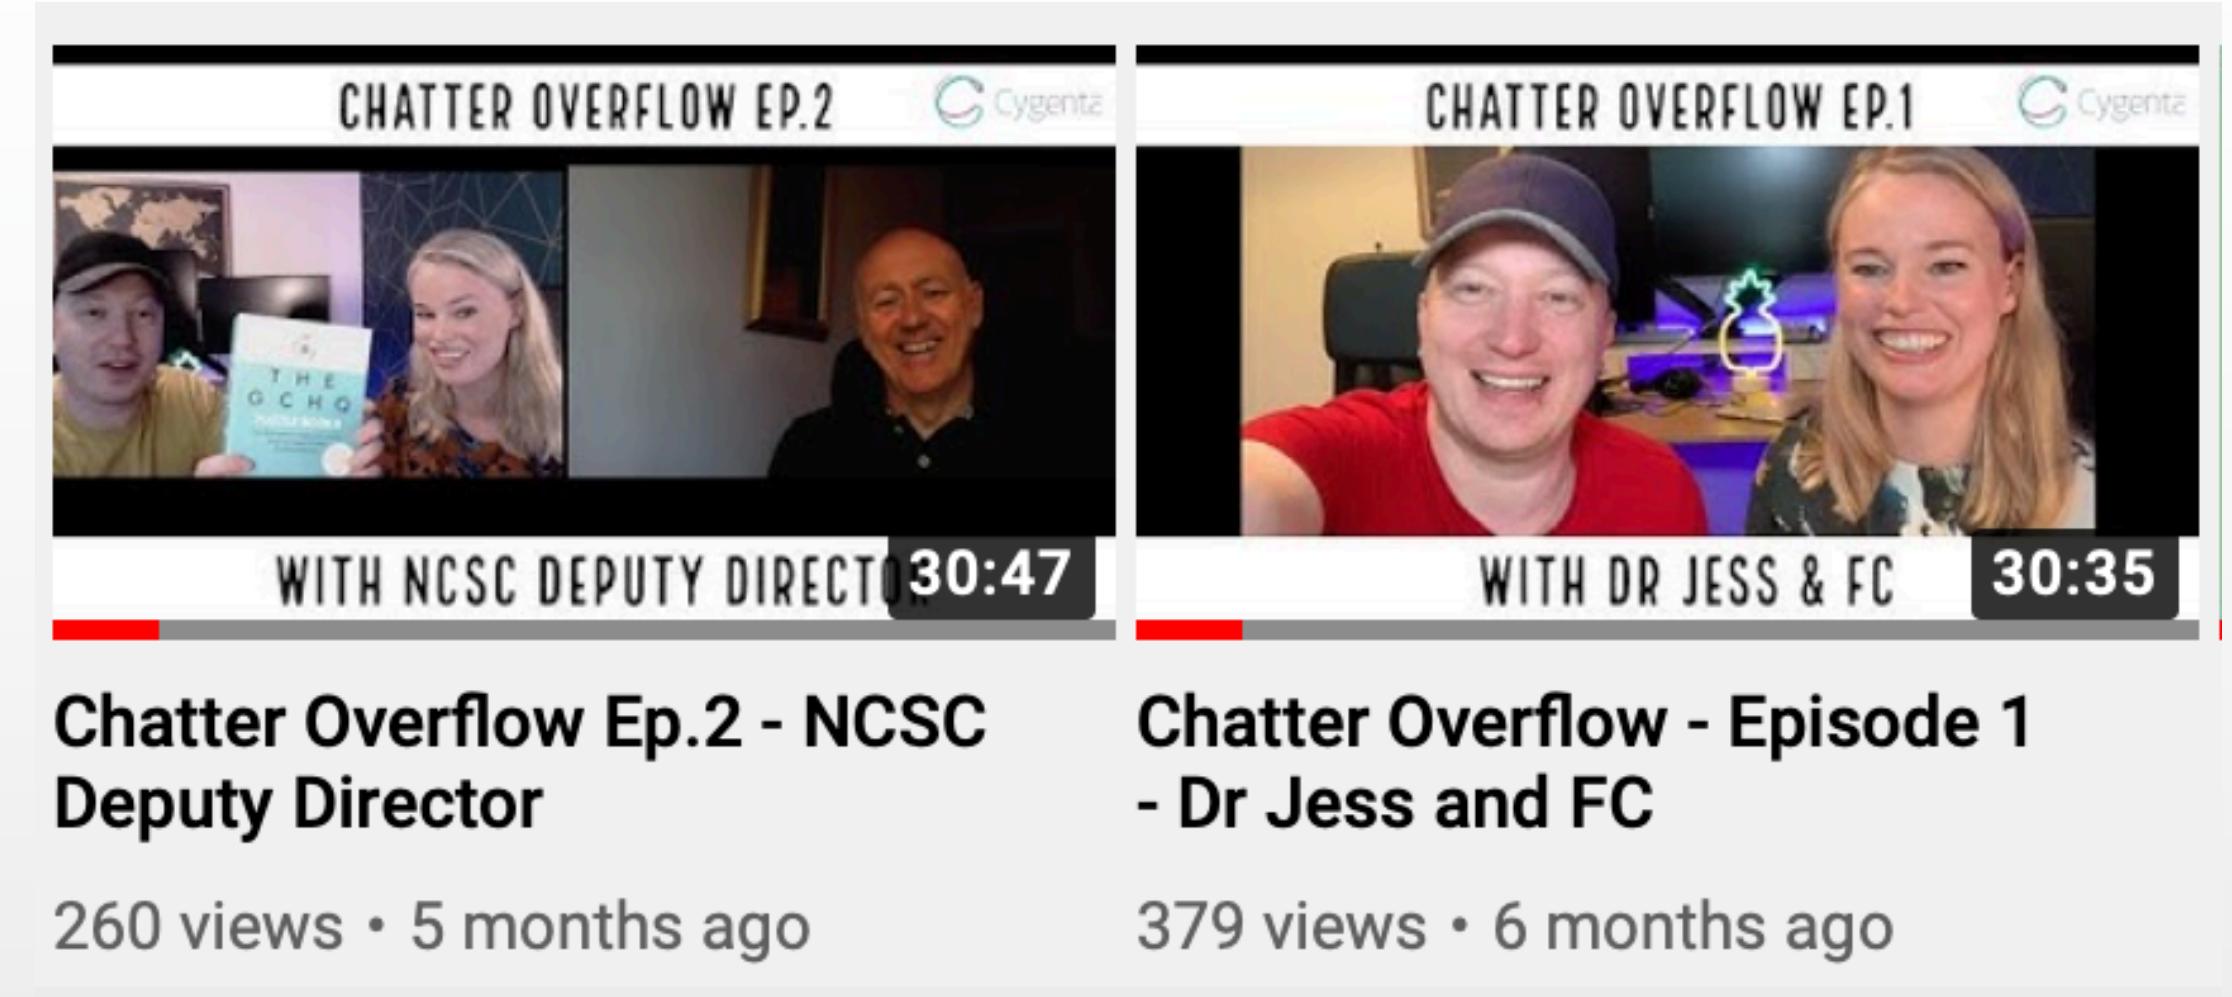

@CygentaHQ

ORGANISATION

INDIVIDUAL

How to inspire, engage and excite young people:

What excites you about your role
Career journeys
Role models in your organisation
Key takeaways
Engage in schemes like CyberFirst

Key takeaways:

Consider hybrid engagement methods

Remember the positive difference you can make at the community, organisational and individual level

Supporting the next generation helps to develop a more secure talent pipeline

cygenta.co.uk

blog.cygenta.co.uk

@CygentaHQ

linkedin.com/company/Cygenta

youtube.com/Cygenta